

Piglet and the flood

One day it rained and rained. It was a flood. Piglet's house was surrounded by water

He threw out a bottle with a note in it. He hoped someone would find it and rescue him.

Pooh's house was surrounded by water also. He moved all his honey to a high branch.

Pooh saw piglets note in the bottle and read it. Piglet needed his help.

He used Christopher Robin's umbrella as a boat and went to rescue Piglet.

Pooh and Christopher Robin rescued Piglet. Everyone was happy.
